

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

DRUMJUNGLE PUMPS UP THE HEAT AT MEMORABLE BEATLES “LOVE” GALA

(Las Vegas, NV) Internationally renowned percussionist Daniel de los Reyes and his DRUMJUNGLE troupe raised the already sizzling 100+ degree Las Vegas temperatures with their powerful high-energy drum/percussion performance playing nonstop dance music for the frenzied crowd at the Cirque du Soleil Beatles “LOVE” world premiere party recently at the Mirage Las Vegas.

Red carpet premiere show guests included Sir Paul McCartney, Ringo Starr, Yoko Ono, and Olivia Harrison. Other familiar faces were Deborah Harry (Blondie), Steven Van Zandt (Bruce Springsteen, The Sopranos), Billy Crystal and Lauren Hutton appearing simply as fans.

The spectacular premiere gala introduced guests to a world inspired by the animated movie “Yellow Submarine” ... complete with a huge inflatable yellow submarine! The wall-to-wall crowd was surrounded by retro décor complete with psychedelic projections creating a surreal wonderland that was then combined with the groundbreaking dance music of DRUMJUNGLE.

Percussionist and DRUMJUNGLE leader Daniel de los Reyes, Canadian percussionist Christian Lagueux (Lionel Richie, Ricky Martin, Noizy Neighbors, Quicksound), Cuban drum powerhouse Raul Pineda (Sintesis, Macina Loca, Chucho Valdez), dancers, and singers brought the house down with their high-energy performance making it impossible to keep enthusiastic guests from jumping onstage with the drummers as everyone partied well into the early morning hours.

“The dance music was fantastic. The perfect finale to a very magical night.” – Attendee

In addition to their recent Cirque du Soleil Beatles “LOVE” party and Mt. Charleston Jazz Festival performances, Daniel de los Reyes and DRUMJUNGLE INC. were featured in DRUM! Magazine and also are featured in the July issue of the popular Musico Pro magazine.
